

INVITATION TO OUR SCHOLASTIC BOOK FAIR/LE FESTIVAL DU LIVRE & BAKE SALE

November 8, 2011

Dear Parent's,

You are invited to attend our pre-holiday bilingual reading event at our school...The Scholastic Book Fair & Le festival du livre. Our Bilingual Scholastic Book Fair will be held over 3 days: November 15-16 and 17.

What better way to gear up for the Holiday season than to offer our students food for their tummies and food for their young minds. The best gift we can offer our young student is the love of reading. Reading opens many doors! On November 15th and November 16th, students will be able to visit the fair and purchase books with their teacher's guidance. For your convenience, you may view the entire selection of quality books at the fair on November 17.

We urge you to support this special reading event by helping your child select books to enjoy. Please note that all purchases from our book fair will contribute in part to raising valuable resources for our school.

We look forward to seeing you at our Scholastic Book Fair/ Le festival du livre. As parents and educators we lead by example... please come and share the wonderful world of books with your child (ren)!

We will also be having our annual Bake Sale Fundraiser on November 16 and 17. Kindly send peanut free-baked goods to school for the Bake Sale the morning of Wednesday, November 16 and/or Thursday, November 17. If you are sending in baked goods, please indicate the ingredients on the platter of the baked goods. Also should you send in your goodies in containers or platters, indicate your child's name under them. This will facilitate returning the containers to you. Each child should bring a sandwich size plastic bag to carry their treats.

Fill out the coupon below if you will send treats for our Bake Sale and return them to your child's teacher.

Please note that November 18 is a Pedagogical Day. The day care will be opened following their Pedagogical Day hours. November 25th is a pedagogical day and there will be no day care service on this day.

Thank you

Yours truly,

I. Pisano
Principal
